Welcome to the 500th edition of the Two Blue Tribune

On behalf of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club, welcome to the 500th Edition of the Two Blue Tribune.

Many people have contributed to it over the years since 13 September, 1973, and I thank all of them, but particularly we should say thank you for our life member David Barnes, whose energy and thorough attention to detail continue to make arrival of the Tribune in our inboxes something to which we look forward over the summer.

Enjoy this edition, and the many more to come as we build on our rich history which has been so faithfully recorded by the Tribune.

President, NCCC

A MESSAGE FROM BROWN ARMS

In September 1973 a single page written by our Chairman of Selectors, Paul Anderson, and signed on behalf of Secretary Ian Quarrel created the historic, rare and wonderfully successful publication called the True Blue Tribune.

Now it is turning 500, what an achievement and why did it happen and why is it successful?

In the 1972/3 season our first eleven at the Christmas break was sitting on top of the ladder in the 10-team competition. We then played two ties and a one run loss to miss the four yet again.

Paul gathered a very strong off-field group around him, and things happened, including;

- Discos
- Pub raffles
- Melbourne Cup bonanzas
- little Tatts
- a huge new modern Club Rooms at no cost to the Club or members
- a new curator arrangement
- Black Ant reports
- Edwards pure English reviews
- Flaker v Elsie wrestling
- late night visits to the Chinese
- educating new young players at Percy Street
- fishing trips by plane
- car collisions with the bridge and other moving and parked vehicles
- an historic relationship with the then Newtown and Chilwell Council (we are still going, where are they despite the help they received from our school teachers Councillor Neville Crane and Councillor John Taylor?).

We fixed the Sheriff and appointed a Coach then began winning Premierships.

The True Blue Tribune reported “accurately” on all these momentous happenings.

Our Club has always had a strong representation of school teachers hence the emphasis on communication and a range of interesting activities.

In my time David Shaw became President taking over from Chemist Bert, then Brian Edwards from Flaker, then the revolution of Paul, then the prize recruit from Highton, Strop, then the scholastic Dale Pearce.

Spectacularly, the True Blue Tribune served and outlasted them all. Of course, many other school teachers performed and were regular contributors to the Tribune for one reason or another - George Schofield, John Taylor, Neville Crane, Scrivo, the Puppet Captain, Elsie, George Briggs, Graeme Taylor (at a different level), Greg Hansen, Michael Bowtell and our First Lady player and others.

During the last match as we were losing, Paul Anderson our brilliant wicket keeper, took me, as Captain, for a walk around the ground and stated that things had to change in a big way. As a Club we were going nowhere.

He was prepared to become President and lead us maybe to the promised land, if you call seven first eleven premierships and many others throughout all levels of the revitalised Club, an acceptable outcome.

Communication was the key to the success and the True Blue Tribune was the catalyst.

The True Blue Tribune reported on all events both during play and well into the after play time, however, it was never sued despite the behaviour of our teachers and others.

Paul Anderson, through the True Blue Tribune, the outstanding administration and facilities and our teachers, was able to build a Club that players, their families, sponsors and friends wanted to join and be a part of and we had great access to juniors and hence success.

The only true misfit is David Barnes. Although well educated at the Diggers and finishing school at Percy St, he has travelled the journey and enabled us to still eagerly await each addition of the True Blue Tribune and sincere thanks and congratulations to all those who have kept this brilliant publication alive since the one pager of 1973.

May the Wisden of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club continue forever.

Proud Life Member.

Bob Merriman (Brown Arms)

Message of congratulations from Kevin Sheedy

I would like to welcome the Two Blue Tribune to The 500 Club.

Only a handful of coaches have made it to that many games in the VFL/AFL and as one of them, I know how hard it is to keep anything going that long.

For your club to have had 500 editions of your newsletter, and to have your history so lovingly recorded, is something to celebrate, because history tells us so much, not just about the past, but the present, and the future.

Well done,

Kevin Sheedy

A MESSAGE FROM RICHARD MARLES MP

Congratulations to the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club on the publication of the 500th Edition of the club's fabled newsletter, the Two Blue Tribune.

A week is a long time in politics, but 500 editions is a much longer time in the history of a cricket club, and to have it recorded since way back in 1973, as the club went on to become the most successful in the history of the Geelong Cricket Association in terms of senior premierships, is a great achievement.

A lot of people have contributed to that success, and to the Tribune over the years. Scoring your 500th edition is a something to celebrate, and from what I know of the Two Blues, I am sure you all will.

THE GOOCH/INSOLE SCHOLARSHIPS

Congratulations on the 500th edition of the Two Blue Tribune.

In my role as Academy Director with Essex County Cricket Club 2005 – 2016 one of the key areas of development for our young scholars who were seen as potential professionals was too look at opportunities away from the structured environment of home and the academy where they would have to take personal responsibility over a period of time to develop, not only there cricketing skills, but as important to understand the life skills required to grow as a person.

Whilst reviewing this in the early years of my role with the academy I had a conversation with the our late President of Essex County Cricket Club, Doug Insole, who advised me he had recently meet an old friend called Warwick Hadfield in Australia and they had discussed young Essex players having a winter playing and coaching at his club Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club and so the strong link that we see today between Essex and the Newtown and Chilwell club was established. Back home in England, the Tribune was a great way for us to keep track of how our boys were going.

On behalf of the club I would like to thank not only Warwick, but also Neville Crane, Frank Tuskes, Devon Royce and Phil Morgan who were instrumental in building and facilitating the relationship and making sure each young cricketer who came to the club was given every opportunity to learn and mature. I also thank Graham Gooch of Essex and England stature whose funding through his foundation has also been key to the overseas development of players.

Over time we have seen the benefits of our association in terms of those who gained or have professional contracts and perhaps with Daniel Lawrence who is in the England Lions squads to tour Australia we might soon see him in a England side which both clubs and its members would be very proud to see.

Good luck and best wishes to the future of the Two Blues from all at Essex.

Kind Regards

John Childs/Head Scout

ALLAN BORDER SAYS CONGRATULATIONS

It doesn't surprise me that Bob Merriman was involved in the early days of the Two Blue Tribune. Bob is one of those people who makes things happen, as I saw many times in India, where the challenges were enormous in the 1970s and the 1980s, and also here in Australia when I became captain for the first time.

It seems, with the Tribune reaching 500 editions, that plenty of others at Newtown and Chilwell have Bob's qualities of hard work, if not quite the same nickname.

Congratulations to everyone involved – 500 not out is a great effort.

GREG CHAPPELL PAYS TRIBUTE TO THE TRIBUNE

I would like to congratulate the Newtown and Chilwell Club on the significant achievement of 500 Editions of the Two Blue Tribune.

Statistics are an important part of cricket and this is a particularly impressive one because it represents a lot of hard work and dedication to recording the history of the club which has produced some fine players, including the player who helped me to my first Test century Ian Redpath. Redders' name is also on the Geelong Amateurs honours boards in your room but because of a knee injury, he sensibly concentrated on cricket, until another injury, to his Achilles while playing World Series Cricket, ended all that.

There is also that photo of me and Dennis Lillee wearing Two Blue T-shirts on the club room walls so I will be watching on as you as you celebrate this great achievement.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM THE GCA

On behalf of the Geelong Cricket Association (GCA), congratulations to the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club (NCCC) on the publication of the 500th edition of the Two Blue Tribune page.

NCCC has a valued and highly successful place in the history of Geelong cricket, which is sure to continue into the future.

Well done to everyone involved in sustaining the continuity of the club newsletter since 1973.

Rob Vines, GCA President

CONGRATULATIONS FROM THE GEELONG FOOTBALL CLUB

To reach a 500th anniversary of something important is a demonstration of resilience and persistence.

We now all celebrate the 500th edition of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club "Two Blue Tribune", the official organ (more than a newsletter!) that has grown from a one pager to a multi-page, story-telling and factual guide (now with advertising and promotions!) for members, supporters and the general community. If the health of the NCCC is demonstrated by the quality of the upgraded production then you all must be very proud.

As you know your club has featured more VFL/AFL players than any other cricket club in Australia, going right back to the Rankins and including Gareth Andrews, who still holds the record for most wickets on First XI debut. So whatever is your secret sauce or whatever is in the water keep eating and slurping.

Congratulations once again on this wonderful achievement and my mind wanders when thinking what the 1000th edition might look like in the future.

Yours sincerely,

Brian Cook
CEO Geelong Cats

Something to celebrate...

There are some major senior premierships celebrations at this year's Sponsors and Players Day. If you were a member of any of these sides, please get along on January the 18th. We'd love to hear your stories.

- First XI - 1959/60; 1989/90, 1999/2000
- Second XI -1979/80
- Fourth XI -1979/80
- Fifth XI - 1989/90; 1999/2000
- Sixth XI 1999/2000
- There was also an Under 15 premiership in 1999/2000.

JANUARY 18TH SPONSORS AND PAST PLAYERS DAY

A day to remember!

Don't miss this chance to thank the people who keep the costs of playing cricket at our club down, our valued sponsors; catch up with old team-mates and help celebrate the 500th edition of the Two Blue Tribune.

The Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club's Thirds and Fourths emerged from the first day of cricket in 2020 with visionary wins against Lara.

Batting first the Thirds made a respectable 166, aided greatly by a late order partnership between Luke Clift (45) and B.J. Twaddle (20).

Twads then began the job of working a way through the Cats' top order, then finishing them off to take 4-13 from 6.1 overs, aided and abetted by a blinder, that's blinder Ben, not blunder, of a catch by Matthew Keast, whose cricket improves exponentially since the acquisition of a pair of white shoes.

For everyone around the ground, the ball, whacked like thunder by Lara's gun, looked to be en route to the boundary before a miracle that would have made a Pentecostal Prime Minister envious.

The immaculate interception came after Mattie had put down a scorcher off the same batsman, so the celebrations were, well excited!

In between all this, the metronomic Kalzie worked his way to 4-18 while Jack Royce and Ethan Guida were the other wicket takers.

Did we mention that also in between all this, Jarad Battenally came and went in the blink of an eye? No, not so far. Well we do now. Jarad Battenally came and went in the blink of an eye, Kalzie and Charlie (Black Shoes!?) Mitchell combining brilliantly.

In the Fourths, it was more Presidential than Prime Ministerial, but a miracle working nevertheless: Nobo smashing 45, including 30 from the last over, to take the score to an hitherto unsuspected 9-151.

Sam Mitchell's smart (and Smart) run out, gave the Two Blues an early advantage which at various stages they yielded back to Lara, but in the end, well there but for the Aidan Grace of, etc.

Nine off the last ball was never going to happen – Nobo's smash and grab at the finish of the Two Blue innings divining the difference.

The Fourths remain in second place on their ladder, the Thirds just outside the top four, both with plenty to look forward to in 2020.

The First XI, struggling to stay in touch with their top four, frittered away the hard work of openers Doc Murdoch and George Chisholm, who put on 69, and the skipper who made a half-century – all out with 3.4 overs to go for 175, three gozzers at the finish.

In contrast, Lara's response was as powerful as it was immediate, thumping sixes in the first few overs before Chisa enticed the mis-hit.

Sam Allen got the only other wicket to fall.

The Second XI match was abandoned.

Cats at ease in run chase

A FREE-FLOWING unbeaten 78 from Brad McMaster was the key to the Cats' eight-wicket win over the Two Blues at Bisinella Oval.

McMaster's 115-ball innings was punctuated by 11 boundaries and provided a framework around which Lara could build its response to Newtown & Chilwell's 175. The stylish opener found support in Vishesh Malhotra's quick-fire 26, before Andy Hughes (24) and skipper Daniel Weigl (46 not out) ensured the Cats ran down the target inside 40 overs.

Earlier in the day, Danny Hughes was the key with the ball with 5-37, as Newtown & Chilwell lost 8-48 after having worked to a launching pad of 2-127. Skipper Dylan Hodge was the visitors' best with a 75-ball 56, while Shane Murdoch contributed an even-time 45 at the top of the order. George Chisholm added an anchor role 26. Lara spinners Ed Kol and Andy Hughes collected 2-35 and 2-26 respectively.

Father and Sons – a proud Two Blue tradition

Famous names permeate the generations throughout the club's 100 plus years. Merriman, Wells, Royce, Chisholm, Anderson, Jefferies, Mitchell, Sanders and Schofield amongst those to leave indelible marks on the club's proud history.

Below is a list of those fathers and sons to represent the club together in the same team. A total of 70.

The Gross family led the way in the 3rd XI in 1954/55 when father Earl Gross, played with sons Graham Gross and Lindsay Gross in the same team.

The Marshalls, Bert and Phil followed in 1957/58 again in the 3rds.

In 1963/64 Lindsay White Snr and Jnr were way ahead of their time setting the 'tradition' bar very high when they played together in the premiership winning 4th XI.

This list below is by no means complete and additions will be appreciated.

Improving the practice nets and making them safer

The Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club is pleased to announce that its next major development project through the Two Blues Foundation, the club's official fundraising arm, is an upgrading of our practice facilities, especially in the area of player safety.

In the lead up to summer and over the season, the nets are used on a daily basis by all generations, from juniors through to the Over 60s players. The wear and tear is significant and maintenance an on-going issue. Upgrading the pitches, and making the whole area safer for those practising, particularly juniors, has now become a high priority for the club.

"Our club has a great history of success, an exciting present and a highly promising future, particularly through our junior programs – one of the biggest in Geelong," said Two Blues treasurer, Mark Ainsworth. "As part of working towards that future it is vital that our practice facilities are of the highest standard, and that they are also safe. Extending the netting out along the bowlers' run-up will making training for cricket both more enjoyable and reduce the risk of injury from wayward balls."

Upgrading the nets is just one of many major improvements the club has undertaken in recent times to ensure Queens Park/KFC Oval keeps it standing – as adjudged by The Geelong Advertiser – as the best cricket ground in Geelong. These include the purchase of a new roller, new digital scoreboard and new change room facilities.

If you would like to make your tax-deductible contribution to helping create the future of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club, visit two-blues.com.au and click on the Two Blues Foundation link.
