A tribute by the Third XI

Tegs celebrates 100th game with a monster innings

Jordan Tegelhuter celebrated his 100th club game with a brazen innings of 82 not out from 33 balls to help the Two Blues secure six club championship points against perennial powerhouse East Belmont.

The Second XI captain won the toss and inserted and for the length of EB's innings of 114 the wicket seemed to have the same demons as the one produced at Winter Reserve for the Second XI grand final last March.

But more likely it was the always tantalising work of Jorden Lewis, ably supported by Harry Christie, also playing his 100th club game, and the kids, Sammy Taylor, Lachie Norton and Archie Fleet. Get used to playing on the grass fellas.

Certainly, the demons seemed to have been well and truly sent to purgatory when Tegs and his obdurate opening partner, Tim Hosking, held sway.

Tippy was nought not out when the score was 0-50, but inspired by the bloke at the other end, managed his own fours and a six, over cover no less.

Tegs' innings inspired folk on the sideline too.

David Norman, a bloke who has played with and against some of the greatest the game has produced, and with his tongue perhaps only slightly in his cheek, reckoned not even G. Pollock hit the ball as well as Tegs did.

Nine fours and seven sixes at a strike rate of 248.48 show that David had a point, as the Second XI secured six points for the win, and three championship points, via a 10-wicket win.

The Third XI showed its class even before the first ball was bowled, a team photo (above) in front of the Shaw Oval sign on David Shaw's eponymous oval in celebration of the life of the club's best ever player/administrator.

The class flowed through the Third XI's innings of 227, Charlie Windt top scoring with 70, Levi Irving – having the season of his young life – scoring 38, just shading the Charles Atlas of Newtown and Chilwell, Jared Battenally (37).

Fleetie and the skipper produced nice 20s in and among before the President and Mihir Patel (three wickets each) began unravelling the EB top order, with wicket-taking support from Levi and Twads ... all out 120.

The Fourth XI had an easy win, Lewis Povey bowling fast and straight – the first four batters all bowled – and finished with 6 for 21 from his allotted nine. There's something special about this bloke.

East Belmont's 68 was surpassed for the loss of two wickets, Andrew Sadowy (51 not out) whacking fours and sixes at will.

The First XI went down to EB, despite Noah Guida's first Michelle at this level (5 for 46) and some brave batting from Dylan Hodge (44 off 37 balls).

At times, the Two Blues looked in the chase to reach down 219, particularly with the skipper playing a lone hand with the tail, but eventually fell short.

David 'Flaker' Shaw tributes

It was a moment of deep sadness for me when I heard of David's passing.

My memory immediately went back almost 70 years to when I first met "Flaker".

I had recently moved permanently to Geelong from a boarding school in Ballarat and was enthusiastic about continuing my love of sport but had no connection with any sport or sport's person.

It was recommended to me that I try out for my cricket and football at Queens Park. So down the hill I went, not knowing anybody.

In I went to the clubrooms and almost immediately this "bloke" came up to me, introduced himself as David Shaw and said to me, "You're most welcome. Let me show you our rooms and what we are all about at the Newtown & Chilwell Cricket Club."

From that moment I went from a "nervous visitor" to a most comfortable member.

This was for the most part due to the friendliness of David Shaw. Under David's guidance my life changed.

Over time I followed him onto the cricket field where again his cricket expertise was shared with all.

His leadership, skills on the cricket field and in the committee room, were infectious. My development in all facets of the game can be attributed to David.

Furthermore, his influence on mine and so many others' social life was remarkable. To this day, what initially commenced as "a beer at the Diggers after the game" where players and their friends met at The Gold Diggers Arms, has not ceased – 70 years later past players and friends still attend the venue on a weekly basis.

"Flaker" you will be missed by so many as a very good friend, teacher, and an inspirational leader and man.

I still hold deep respect for you David and thank you so much for being such a positive influence on my life.

Raelee and Tim both remember 'Flaker' fondly as 'the man in the corner' at the Diggers.

RIP

Such a great influence on me as a young cricketer and future administrator. Sir Henry Newbolt wrote in the late 1800s 'Vital Lampada' so in tribute to Flaker: "There's a breathless hush in the Close tonight Ten to make and the match to win A bumping pitch and a blinding light, An hour to play and the last man in. And it's not for the sake of a ribboned coat, Or the selfish hope of a season's fame, But his Captain's hand on his shoulder smote "Play up! play up! and play the game!"

NEWTOWN WIN IS 1ST IN 12 YEARS

(BY GRAHAM RAWLINS)

Newtown, with a dazzling display of bowling and fielding, breezed its way to the 1973/74 premiership over South Barwon at the week-end. Winning the toss and asking South Barwon to bat, Newtown was soon on top.

Lane and Pateman were very quickly back in the pavilion with only four runs on the scoreboard. It was then that Walker and Peake came together in an attempt to consolidate the innings.

However, after an innings of 12 runs, Peake was clean bowled by Edwards, and South Barwon was 1/30.

In quick succession, wickets continuously fell, as the Newtown attack, being excellently supported by magnificent fielding, picked up wickets.

South Barwon was unable to overcome this determined and possessed attack from Newtown as it lost 6/4, to be 8/34.

Payne and Bourke combined in an attempt to lift the score as they played good shots and ran well between wickets.

However, after a 30-run partnership, Bourke was bowled by Shaw and the end was near.

Payne followed four runs later and South Barwon was all out for 68.

It was a sensational innings with the Newtown attack being too strong and determined.

Shaw and Edwards had bowled superbly to collect four wickets each.

South Barwon then took the field with a difficult task in front of it.

With determination and superb fielding, South Barwon struck back severely.

Five of the top Newtown batsmen were back in the pavilion with only 21 runs on the board.

It was men that Holden (22), Wells (20) and Dusty Rhodes (32n.o.) took Newtown on to a first innings win with cool and calculated batting.

Anderson (5/30) had bowled well, but his lion-hearted effort could not overcome the Newtown batting line-up.

Newtown had deserved the win with magnificent fielding and solid tail-end batting.

Winning its first premiership in 12 years, Newtown can look forward to bigger and better things in the coming years.

MARCH, 1974.

PREMIERSHIP DROUGHT BROKEN

The First Eleven, captained by Bob "Brown Arms" Merriman, had enjoyed a successful season and contained a blend of youthful enthusiastic players as well as experienced campaigners. In the grand final against South Barwon the opposition had been bundled out for 68 with the bowling honors shared by Barry Shaw (4/28) and Brian Edwards (4/17). Overnight Newtown/Chilwell was precariously placed at 5 for 28. Bruce Holden contributed an invaluable 22 but it was Greg Wells (20) and Graeme Rhodes (32 not out) who saw the team through to victory and the first premiership in twelve years.

It had been a long hard 12 seasons between the Golden Era of three consecutive flags until the next one arrived at Queen's Park in March of 1974.

The GCA had affectively brought an end to the Golden Era by introducing district boundaries for clubs, meaning that you had to reside within a club's boundary to play for a club.

The affect was immediate and disastrous for the club as it did not win another 1st XI match until February 10, 1964.

Some 26 matches later!

Premiership anniversaries – 1sts XI 1973/74

The GCA was taken to task by the Club on multiple occasions to change the rule but it wasn't until the mid 1960s that the rule was changed.

'Brown Arms' Merriman had in 1965 taken over as the GCA President and eventually abolished the former district boundaries rules as one of his prime objectives.

Season 1973/74 saw the 1sts XI come from narrowly missing the finals the previous year by 0.03% to lose just one of 12 matches (to Geelong West) and win the flag. Debutantes included Michael Bowtell and Bruce Holden along with Warwick 'Butch' Oman. Bowtell's century on debut was the first of his eight Ones tons. Of course, he went on to be one of the GCA's all time greats scoring 4680 runs at 46.34 with eight premierships.

Bruce Holden celebrated by winning the inaugural GJ Donovan Duck Award thus becoming 'Golden' Holden.

Butch Oman was later to become the only man in the club's history to have an umpire upgrade his dismissed 99 to 100 by changing a leg bye in his favour!

On February 28 Greg Wells single headedly defeated Leopold making 85 runs and taking 7 for 31 from 19 overs, 7 maidens. The Goose later became the GCA's greatest wicket taker with 574 wickets at 14.82. The '73/74 flag was his first of 9 in the Ones.

Bowtell won the '73/74 club batting average with 532 runs at 76, he also won the GCA batting award. Wells the club bowling average with 20 wickets at 12.5.

A youthful Stephen Lunn was part of a younger group in the premiership side which also included five future members of the club's Team of the Century – Merriman, Bowtell, Wells, Paul Anderson, Brian Edwards and

The 17 year old Lunn along with Goose (21) and Ken Le Hunt (22) provided the youthful exuberance.

Allrounders Graeme 'Dusty' Rhodes and President Brian Edwards completed the premiership XI.

Skipper Bob Merriman along with 'keeper Paul Anderson, seamer Barry Shaw and paceman and Caricaturist extraordinaire Mike "Curly" Mitton had endured 12 seasons of premiership drought since the Golden Era. Mitton having returned to the club the previous season after a successful stint in Melbourne District Cricket.

Some great milestones today for the Two Blues' women's as they also paid respect to club legend David Shaw.

Navy 1-137 defeated East Belmont Razz 8-88 with 2 spectacular knocks by Bianca Duff (53 off 45) and Michelle Gavin (51 off 51). The girls also starred with the ball (Bianca 2-10 and Gav 1-12). Special shout out to debutant Florianne Twaddle with 1-10, a catch and a run out!

Cambridge also had a good win scoring 2-80 defeating Bannockburn 2-73. Outstanding 4 overs of bowling by the captain, Jules Holt (1-1 with 3 maidens) and superstar Bec Wright retired on 30no. Big congrats to Cambridge debutants Molly, Zoe and Erin and thanks also to our awesome supporters, helpers and cheer squad who show up every week.

N&CCC & The Geelong College over 100 years

The N&CCC has a long-standing relationship with the Geelong College for well over 100 years. Not that it has always been favourable relationship for player selection on a given day, but The College has been very productive as a recruiting ground for junior and senior N&CCC players.

Current first XI player Archie Bain is the latest of a long list of Two Blues 1st XI players from the College where he was captain in 2022.

Whilst the list of those who have played in the Geelong College 1st XI and at the Two Blues is lengthy, below there are some well-known names who have captained the College 1st XI. Special thanks to Greg Hansen.

The most recent College first XI premiership was in 2011 and featured Jack Wood, Ed Ratcliffe, Jamie Harrison, James Carr, Josh Carr, Eamonn Vines, Hugo Steinfort, John Simson, Will Lugg, George Cameron, George Chisholm and Will Langley. Coach Greg Hansen and manager Michael Terry flank the team. All played for N&CCC except Vines who went on to play for Victoria. The team lost one game for the season. Played Caulfield Grammar In the second last game, Caul were top and College third. College beat them outright, beat Scotch in the last game and won the title comfortably by nine points. The director of cricket at Scotch was Ian Frazer, a former Sheffield Shield player. He was at that last game and he said "they are the best schoolboys fielding team I have ever seen".

Barnso's brilliant Bible out now

The Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club is blessed to have a resident historian, statistician and dedicated Life Member like David Barnes, who among his many other good works for the club, puts together the Yearbook.

This year's magnum opus is a champagne edition, recording the success of the Inaugurals, the Women's First and Second XIs playing in their first season in the BWCC.

Wherever and whenever you choose to read it, enjoy the club's history, and especially the season just gone, when the men's teams won the club championship, the Fourth XI won a premiership, and the club returned to its powerhouse status, and then some, in the GCA.
